Pro-gun or pro gun control?

Lisez les arguments suivants . Surlignez tout ce que vous comprenez ou devinez. En vous aidant de ces éléments, indiquez quelle opinion ils soutiennent.
Guns don't protect you. Statistics show that you are more likely to be shot if you have a gun in the house.
Guns prevent crime. Criminals will hesitate before robbing the house of someone with a gun. People need guns to protect themselves.
People always talk about gun control after massacres The people who do these things are mentally ill. The actions of one 'madman' shouldn't be used to make everyone else criminals too.
Most people who have guns are responsible citizens. They use them to hunt or for sport. They store their guns carefully and know how to use them. They aren't dangerous.
In the majority of these 'massacre' killings, the murderer got the guns from his or her own home or from the home of a member of the family. And the guns were usually legal.
Every year, thousands of children die in accidents involving guns in their own homes. Why not use the new generation of 'smart' guns that can only be used by the owner, through, for example, fingerprint recognition? The technology is available, but gun makers and gun owners don't want to use it.
A gun is only a tool. It doesn't kill by itself. People kill, not guns. Are you going to ban knives next?
Guns and knives are not the same. You can kill many more people with a gun than a knife. And with a gun, the killing is depersonalised. You can kill people from a distance without seeing the consequences.
Thousands of people are killed every year by cars, but we don't ban cars.
Cars weren't invented to kill people. Guns were.
We need more severe penalties for criminals who use guns, not restrictions on normal people.
People have the right to carry guns. In many countries, (the USA for example) it's a right that goes back hundreds of years. Why should the government interfere in the lives of ordinary citizens?
The world was a different place hundreds of years ago. Machine guns didn't exist.
